

NECK PURO

There is a saying about architecture that goes: you can only improve on something good by simplifying.

When it comes to our PURO leather, we do away with all of the finishes, embossing and unnecessary embellishments of any kind. PURO is simple, but not plain. It is full-handed, snug, warm, and despite what its thickness might imply: incredibly soft! PURO features a particularly striking and coarsely patterned grain. It has to be seen to be believed!
